WELCOME TO PRESIDENTS AT POPS!

Welcome to the 31st annual Presidents at Pops! We are honored to serve as co-chairs of Boston's premier CEO event and signature corporate fundraiser for the Boston Pops and the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Tonight we take great pride in saluting all of you—the companies and business leaders who have placed their confidence in, and given their loyalty to, the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

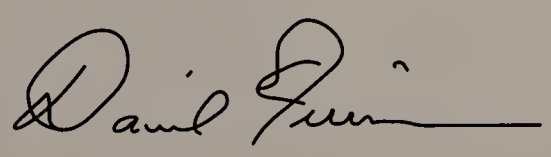

Over the past 31 years, and through your extraordinary generosity, the BSO's iconic corporate fundraising events have raised more than $45 million in support of the BSO's mission and its youth and community outreach programs. Like all of us here tonight, you believe that investing in music and the arts is essential to maintaining and enhancing the quality and vitality of life in Boston. We recognize that you are called upon to contribute to numerous causes, and we thank you for helping the BSO to continue its outstanding record of community service throughout the year. We also would like to thank the Presidents at Pops Committee, all of our Lead Sponsors, Keith Lockhart, John Williams, the Boston Pops Orchestra, Steve Martin and the Steep Canyon Rangers, Senator Alan Simpson, the Boston Symphony Orchestra staff and volunteers, and all of our sponsors for making this year's celebration such a great success.

Through your support of Presidents at Pops, A Company Christmas at Pops, and the BSO Business Partners, the BSO will continue to make music of the highest quality, and to serve its many constituencies. The BSO's education and community programs bring the joy of classical music and symphonic performance to more than 28,000 young people throughout our region each year. These programs—such as Youth and Family Concerts in Symphony Hall, community partnerships that bring BSO musicians into inner-city schools, and DARTS, the BSO's summer arts camp at Tanglewood—are direct reflections of the Orchestra's commitment to provide educational programs at the highest level of excellence.

So stand up and take a bow—none of this would be possible without you! We thank all of our long-standing sponsors—and we heartily welcome our new sponsors – to what we hope will be a lasting and rewarding partnership for many years to come.

DAYS IN THE ARTS AT TANGLEWOOD

Tonight, corporations and individuals have made contributions to help send deserving students entering the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades to Days in the Arts at Tanglewood (DARTS), the BSO's summer arts immersion camp in the Berkshires, founded in 1967. Nearly 400 students from throughout the Commonwealth attend DARTS for one week every July and August. Students participate in daily workshops led by veteran arts educators from across the state, while they concentrate on one arts discipline. In addition, students are immersed in countless forms and aspects of art and culture during daily field trips to Jacob's Pillow, Shakespeare and Co., Berkshire Theater Festival, Norman Rockwell Museum, Clark Museum, and of course, Tanglewood and the Boston Symphony Orchestra. No child is turned away due to inability to pay.

The Boston Symphony Orchestra and the Presidents at Pops committee express their gratitude to the following organizations and individuals for generously sponsoring students for this summer's DARTS program:

GUEST ARTISTS

FEATURED ARTISTS

STEVE MARTIN

Steve Martin—actor, comedian, author, playwright, producer, and musician—has been successful as a writer of and performer in some of the most popular movies in recent history. He has also released two full-length bluegrass albums on Rounder Records: Rare Bird Alert (a collaboration with the Steep Canyon Rangers) and The Crow/New Songs for the Five-String Banjo (a Grammy winner for Best Bluegrass Album). Mr. Martin and the Steep Canyon Rangers have toured together extensively. Impressed with the level of musicianship in the world of bluegrass, he established The Steve Martin Prize for Excellence in Banjo and Bluegrass in 2010. Born in Waco, Texas, and raised in southern California, Steve Martin became a television writer in the late 1960s, winning an Emmy award for his work on The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour. Soon he was performing his own material in clubs and on television. Launched by frequent appearances on Johnny Carson's Tonight Show, Mr. Martin went on to host several episodes of Saturday Night Live, star in and co-write four television specials, and draw capacity crowds to his appearances across the country. He won Grammy awards for his comedy albums Let's Get Small and A Wild and Crazy Guy and a gold record for the single "King Tut." His feature films include The Jerk, Pennies from Heaven, Dead Men Don't Wear Plaid, The Man with Two Brains, All of Me, Roxanne, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, Parenthood, L.A. Story, Father of the Bride (1 and 2), Housesitter, The Spanish Prisoner, Bowfinger, Planes, Trains and Automobiles, The Three Amigos, Cheaper by The Dozen (1 and 2), Bringing Down the House, The Pink Panther (1 and 2), Shopgirl, The Big Year, and It's Complicated. His first original play, the comedy-drama Picasso at the Lapin Agile, was presented successfully in Chicago, Boston, Los Angeles, and Off-Broadway in New York. In 1996 the American Film Institute's Third Decade Council honored him at the U.S. Comedy Arts Festival with a retrospective of his work and a Lifetime Achievement Award. In 2000 a selection of paintings from his extensive, private, modern art collection was exhibited at the Bellagio Hotel gallery in Las Vegas, with catalog notes written by Mr. Martin. He has written an autobiography as well as books for children and adults. Awarded the prestigious Kennedy Center Honor in 2007, Steve Martin has hosted the Academy Awards ceremony three times, most recently co-hosting with Alec Baldwin in 2010. These performances mark his debut with the Boston Pops Orchestra.

STEEP CANYON RANGERS

The Steep Canyon Rangers—Mike Guggino, mandolin/vocals; Charles Humphrey III, bass/vocals; Woody Platt, guitar/lead vocals; Nicky Sanders, fiddle/vocal; and Graham Sharp, banjo/vocals—are bringing bluegrass to music lovers across the USA and around the world. Charles, Graham, and Woody were school friends in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, and began to make music there. Mike, a childhood acquaintance of Woody's, joined the band after they found Nicky on the Internet. The group was named Emerging Artist of the Year in 2006 at the International Bluegrass Music Association Awards ceremony, and in 2008 received an IBMA nomination for Album and Gospel Performance of the Year. The past year, however, has taken the Steep Canyon Rangers to new heights. In March 2011 the band released Rare Bird Alert, its first collaborative recording with Steve Martin on banjo. The album debuted at #1 on Billboard's Bluegrass Chart and at #43 on its Top 200. In 2010 the group's most recent solo recording, Deep in the Shade, remained in Billboard's Bluegrass Top 10 for eighteen weeks. While headlining at such festivals as MerleFest and Bonnaroo alongside Steve Martin for part of each year, the Rangers continue to perform alone as a quintet on such stages as Telluride and RockyGrass, and on "A Prairie Home Companion" with Garrison Keillor. They have also performed in Sweden, Ireland, England, Germany, Switzerland, and Canada. Recent television appearances have included Late Night with David Letterman, The Colbert Report, and Austin City Limits. In September 2011 Steve Martin and the Steep Canyon Rangers jointly won the Entertainers of the Year award at the International Bluegrass Music Association Awards ceremony.

ALAN K. SIMPSON

For the past one hundred years, Simpsons have practiced law in the sparsely populated state of Wyoming, beginning with Al's grandfather, William L. Simpson, and followed by his father, Milward L. Simpson. Alan K. Simpson was the third-generation lawyer in the family, and his two sons, William L. and Colin M. Simpson, currently practice law in Cody. Born in 1931, Alan K. Simpson graduated from Cody High School and spent a postgraduate year at Cranbrook School in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. In 1950, having completed his bachelor's degree in law at the University of Wyoming, he joined the Army and was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant. In 1954, after marrying the former Ann Schroll, he was ordered to Fort Benning, Georgia, and served overseas in Germany. Following his honorable discharge in 1956, Al returned to the University of Wyoming, earning his juris doctorate degree in 1958. He practiced law in Cody for eighteen years, also serving ten years as City Attorney. A member of a political family—his father served both as Governor of Wyoming and United States Senator from Wyoming—Al began his own political career in 1964 when he was elected to the Wyoming State Legislature. He served for the next thirteen years in the Wyoming House of Representatives. In 1978 Al ran for, and was elected to, the United States Senate, earning re-election in 1984 and 1990. Elected by his peers as Assistant Majority Leader in 1984, he served in that capacity until 1994. He completed his final term on January 3, 1997. From January 1997 until June 2000, Al was a Visiting Lecturer and for two years, the Director of the Institute of Politics at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government. During fall 2000 he returned to the University of Wyoming, as a Visiting Lecturer in the Political Science Department, where he continues to team-teach a class with his brother Peter. He is also a partner in the Cody firm of Simpson, Kepler and Edwards, the Cody division of the Denver firm of Burg Simpson Eldredge, Hersh & Jardine, PC. He serves on numerous corporate and non-profit boards and travels the country giving speeches on a variety of subjects. His book, Right in the Old Gazoo: A Lifetime of Scrapping with the Press, was published by William Morrow Company. In recent years, Simpson has collaborated with John Williams, performing his suite from The Reivers at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York, and with the Boston Pops, Chicago Symphony, and Marine Corps Band. He has also previously narrated Copland's Lincoln Portrait at the Grand Teton Music Festival and with the Cheyenne Symphony; Gustav Holst's The Planets: A Symphonic Film at the Grand Teton Music Festival, and Prokofiev's Peter and the Wolf with the Festival Orchestra.

JOHN WILLIAMS

In a career spanning five decades, John Williams has become one of America's most accomplished and successful composers for film and for the concert stage. In January 1980, Mr. Williams was named nineteenth conductor of the Boston Pops Orchestra, succeeding the legendary Arthur Fiedler. He currently holds the title of Laureate Conductor, which he assumed following his retirement in December 1993, and is Artist-in-Residence at Tanglewood. In addition, he maintains thriving artistic relationships with many of the world's great orchestras. Mr. Williams has composed the music and served as music director for more than 100 films. His nearly 40-year artistic partnership with director Steven Spielberg has resulted in many of Hollywood's most acclaimed and successful films, including Schindler's List, E.T. The Extra-Terrestrial, Jaws, Jurassic Park, Close Encounters of the Third Kind, the Indiana Jones films, and Saving Private Ryan. Their two latest collaborations, The Adventures of TinTin: The Secret of the Unicorn, and War Horse, were released last year. Mr. Williams also composed the scores for all six Star Wars films, the first three Harry Potter films, and Superman, among many others. He has received five Academy Awards and a total of forty-seven Oscar nominations, making him the Academy's most-nominated living person. He also has received seven British Academy Awards (BAFTA), twenty-one Grammys, four Golden Globes, five Emmys, and numerous gold and platinum records. A composition student of Mario Castelnuovo-Tedesco, Mr. Williams also studied piano at the Juilliard School with Madame Rosina Lhevinne. He began his career in the film industry working with such accomplished composers as Bernard Herrmann, Alfred Newman, and Franz Waxman. He went on to write music for more than 200 television films, and more recently has written themes for NBC Nightly News ("The Mission"), NBC's Meet the Press, and PBS's Great Performances.

His works for the concert stage include two symphonies, and concertos for flute, oboe, violin, clarinet, viola, and tuba. His cello concerto was commissioned by the Boston Symphony Orchestra and premiered by Yo-Yo Ma at Tanglewood in 1994. Other commissions include a bassoon concerto for the New York Philharmonic, a trumpet concerto for the Cleveland Orchestra, and a horn concerto for the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. "Seven for Luck," a song cycle for soprano and orchestra based on texts by Rita Dove, was premiered by the Boston Symphony at Tanglewood in 1998. And at the opening concert of their 2009-10 season, James Levine led the Boston Symphony in the premiere of Mr. Williams's "On Willows and Birches," a new concerto for harp and orchestra. Mr. Williams has composed music for many important cultural and commemorative events, including "Liberty Fanfare" for the rededication of the Statue of Liberty in 1986, "American Journey" for the America's Millennium concert in Washington, D.C., on New Year's Eve 1999, and "Soundings" for the gala opening of Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles. In the world of sport, he has contributed musical themes for the 1984, 1988, and 1996 Summer Olympic Games, and the 2002 Winter Olympic Games.

John Williams holds honorary degrees from twenty-one American universities. He is a recipient of the National Medal of Arts, the highest award given to artists by the United States Government, and the Olympic Order, the IOC's highest honor, for his contributions to the Olympic movement. He served as the Grand Marshal of the 2004 Rose Parade in Pasadena, and was a recipient of the Kennedy Center Honor in December 2004. In January 2009, Mr. Williams composed and arranged "Air and Simple Gifts" especially for the inaugural ceremony of President Barack Obama.

KEITH LOCKHART

JULIAN AND EUNICE COHEN BOSTON POPS CONDUCTOR

Keith Lockhart became the twentieth conductor of the Boston Pops in 1995, adding his artistic vision to the Pops tradition established by his predecessors John Williams and Arthur Fiedler. Mr. Lockhart holds the Eunice and Julian Cohen Boston Pops Conductor chair. He has worked with a wide array of established artists from virtually every corner of the entertainment world, while also promoting programs that focus on talented young musicians from the Tanglewood Music Center, Boston Conservatory, and Berklee College of Music. During his seventeen-year tenure, he has conducted more than 1,400 Boston Pops concerts and introduced the innovative JazzFest and EdgeFest series, featuring prominent jazz and indie artists performing with the Pops. Mr. Lockhart has also introduced concert performances of full-length Broadway shows, including Rodgers and Hammerstein's Carousel and Stephen Sondheim's A Little Night Music, and the PopSearch and High School Sing-Off competitions. Under his leadership, the Boston Pops has commissioned several new works—including The Dream Lives On, a tribute to the Kennedy brothers, which was premiered in May 2010 during the 125th anniversary season—and dozens of new arrangements.

Audiences worldwide love Keith Lockhart's inimitable style, expressed not only through his consummate music-making, but also by his unique ability to speak directly to the audience about the music to which he feels so passionately committed. He and the Boston Pops have released four self-produced recordings—Sleigh Ride, America, Oscar & Tony, and The Red Sox Album—and also recorded eight albums with RCA Victor—Runnin' Wild: The Boston Pops Play Glenn Miller, American Visions, the Grammy-nominated The Celtic Album, Holiday Pops, A Splash of Pops, Encore!, the Latin Grammy-nominated The Latin Album, and My Favorite Things: A Richard Rodgers Celebration. Keith Lockhart has made 71 television shows with the Boston Pops, including a 2009 concert featuring jazz trumpeter Chris Botti, and special guests Sting, John Mayer, and Steven Tyler, and the annual Boston Pops Fireworks Spectacular, broadcast nationally on CBS Television. He has also led many Holiday Pops telecasts, as well as 38 new programs for PBS's Evening at Pops (1970-2004). He has led the Boston Pops on 35 national tours, as well as performances at Carnegie Hall and Radio City Music Hall, and brought the music of "America's Orchestra" overseas in four tours of Japan and Korea. Mr. Lockhart has led the Boston Pops in the national anthem for numerous major sports events.

Keith Lockhart currently serves as principal conductor of the BBC Concert Orchestra in London, and as artistic director of the Brevard Music Center summer institute and festival in North Carolina. He has appeared with virtually every major symphonic ensemble in North America, as well as several in Asia and Europe. He was music director of the Utah Symphony from 1998 to 2009, and led that orchestra in performances at the 2002 Olympic Games, as well as on its first European tour in two decades. Prior to coming to Boston, he was the associate conductor of both the Cincinnati Symphony and Cincinnati Pops orchestras, as well as music director of the Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra.

Born in Poughkeepsie, NY, he began his musical studies with piano lessons at the age of seven. He holds degrees from Furman University and Carnegie Mellon University, and honorary doctorates from several American universities. Visit keithlockhart.com for further information.

ABOUT THE POPS

THE BOSTON POPS

Affectionately known as "America's Orchestra," the Boston Pops is the most recorded and arguably the most beloved orchestra in the country, beginning with the establishment of the modern-era Pops by Arthur Fiedler and continuing through the innovations introduced by John Williams and the new-millennium Pops spearheaded by Keith Lockhart. With the 125th anniversary season in 2010, the Boston Pops reached a landmark moment in a remarkable history that began with its founding in 1885. Fours years earlier, in 1881, Civil War veteran Henry Lee Higginson founded the Boston Symphony Orchestra, calling its establishment "the dream of my life." From the start he intended to present, in the warmer months, concerts of light classics and the popular music of the day. From a practical perspective, Higginson realized that these "lighter" performances would provide year-round employment for his musicians. The "Promenade Concerts," as they were originally called, were soon informally known as "Popular Concerts," which eventually became shortened to "Pops," the name officially adopted in 1900. Some people may not realize that there were seventeen Pops conductors, beginning with the German Adolf Neuendorff, who preceded Arthur Fiedler, the first American-born musician to lead the orchestra. In his nearly 50-year tenure as Pops Conductor (1930–1979), Arthur Fiedler established the Boston Pops as a national icon. When John Williams (1980–1993) succeeded Arthur Fiedler in 1980, he was the most highly acclaimed composer in Hollywood, and today, with 45 Academy Award nominations, he is the most-nominated living person in Academy history. With the Pops, Mr. Williams continued the orchestra's prolific recording tradition with a series of best-selling recordings for the Philips and Sony Classical labels, broadened and updated the Pops repertoire, and entertained audiences with live orchestral accompaniment to film clips of memorable movie scenes, many of which featured iconic music from his own film scores. Having led more than 1,400 Boston Pops concerts, Keith Lockhart (1995–present) has completed seventeen seasons as Boston Pops Conductor. In response to the ever-diversifying trends in music, Mr. Lockhart has taken the Pops in new directions, creating programs that reach out to a broader and younger audience by presenting artists—both established performers and rising stars—from virtually every corner of the entertainment world, all the while maintaining the Pops' appeal to its core audience. Mr. Lockhart's tenure has been marked by a dramatic increase in touring, the orchestra's first Grammy nominations, the first major network national broadcast of the Fourth-of-July spectacular, and the release of the Boston Pops' first self-produced and self-distributed recordings.

ORCHESTRATION

It is defined as the craft of assigning parts to various instruments to achieve the desired blend of sound. It's about creating something memorable - even magical, by working together and forming a lasting impression. Whether one is orchestrating a symphony or a job site – in the end it's about collaboration, passion and hard work.
